Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God January 1, 2023

"And Mary kept all these things, reflecting them in her heart."

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR PASTOR

Rev. Monsignor
John C. Marine

My dear parishioners,

Happy New Year! How fortunate we are that on this New Year's Day, the Church places before us for our meditation this beautiful Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God. What a perfect model for all of us in Mary, as we begin this New Year. Not knowing what her life would entail, not knowing what God would ask of her, Mary said "Yes" to God's plan. And because of her trust in God's will, we received her Son, the One who came so that we might have eternal life.

Not knowing what lies before us, you and I enter a new year. While it might frighten us not to know what 2023 will bring, we walk hand in hand, in faith with our Mother Mary. Today she leads us to her Son's manger, to gaze once again upon His Holy Face. One glance at the Baby Jesus and we are reminded that God loved us so much, to give us the gift of his Son. We have nothing to fear.

Speaking of gifts, and on behalf of Fr. Ryan, I thank you for your generosity of time, talent and treasure that you have bestowed upon this parish during the past year. At the same time, thank you for your Christmas cards, gifts, baked goods or simple words of encouragement. It means so much to Fr. Ryan and me. We pray that your new year will be happy and healthy, and filled with many blessings from God.

With this New Year, I am pleased to announce the inauguration of our new Parish Website. Our parish staff and I have been working closely with parishioner Ed Zapiesik and Fred Poritsky, a local resident of

ST. BEDE THE VENERABLE
Faith · Service · Family
ESTABLISHED 1965

The new St. Bede website icon.

Northampton Township and owner of FZP Digital, to produce this renewed source of information and communication. The new website was launched last week, in time for use expressly by all who are searching for information about our parish's celebration of Christmas.

Our previous website, which was established over 20 years ago, while helpful, had much outdated information that needed to be refreshed with more accurate facts. We looked at several parish websites and concluded that we wanted one for St. Bede that would be more user-friendly and make it easier for information seekers to navigate and discover what they needed to find their way to a deeper relationship with Christ and His Church.

I invite you to explore our new website and let us know what you think. Your comments will be helpful. The website is a valuable means of evangelization. Like the Star of Bethlehem, I hope it will help attract many to St. Bede Parish, and ultimately to our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Happy New Year.

Monsignor Marine

All 2024 dates are now available! Just come into the Parish Office. Candle dedications are a $30 donation for the week.

Scripture Readings

The Epiphany of the Lord January 8, 2023

Isaiah 60: 1-6

Psalms 72: 1-2, 7-8, 10-13

Epiphany 3: 2-3a, 5-6

Matthew 2: 1-12

The Psalm refrain expresses the essence of the celebration: "Lord, every nation on earth will adore you." From Isaiah's vision of a world beating a path to God's door, to Saint Paul's inclusion of Gentiles as copartners in the promise of Christ Jesus, to the appearance of magi from the East, we celebrate God's salvation for all people. As we listen to these readings, let us be mindful of the places in the world that desperately need to hear God's saving message.

In celebration of the New Year, the Parish Office will be CLOSED at 12 NOON on Saturday, DECEMBER 31, 2022.

The office will be closed on Sunday, JANUARY 1, 2023 and Monday JANUARY 2, 2023

The Parish Office will re-open at 8:00am on Tuesday, JANUARY 3, 2023

Happy New Year!

Get a glimpse into the inspiring story of Fr. Michael J. Doyle and see some incredible moments about a man who made it his life-long purpose to inspire and help a city and the people within it in this documentary. As a young priest, Father Michael J. Doyle came to the U.S. from rural Ireland in 1959, bringing with him a joyful disposition, a fervent Catholic faith, and an unwavering determination to help his congregation and community. These traits were put to the test in Camden, where he found himself confronted with urban decay and despair. Industries were closing and people were leaving. Crime, drug use, the breakdown of families, the proliferation of hopelessness—this was Camden's reality.

Happy New Year! I wish you and your family the best in 2023! Each day and every New Year are a gift from God. Sometimes when we make New Year's resolutions we forgot who has the true power to help us achieve them. Even the Saints struggled with remembering that God is our ultimate help in everything. St. Faustina writes of this in her diary: "When one day I resolved to practice a certain virtue, I lapsed into the vice opposed to that virtue ten times more frequently than on other days. In the evening, I was reflecting on why, today, I had lapsed so extraordinarily, and I heard the words: 'You were counting too much on yourself and too little on Me.' And, I understood the cause of my lapse." So remember to ask God to help you in your resolutions this year and don't forget all of His great helps, our guardian angel and the Saints.

Mr. Shawn Tobin

Many times we forget the great gift of our guardian angel and the Saints. So remember to ask them to help you with your needs and pick a Saint of the year to help in your journey of 2023. Follow this link to randomly pick a Saint for 2023: <https://saintsnamegenerator.com/index.php> Last year I had St. Martha and she was great help to me. Please share who you get with me in the upcoming year!

CCD Highlights: Mrs. Cochran's 1st grade class visited the Nativity. Mrs. Lutz 7th grade class went to Adoration. Mrs. McDonald's 3rd grade class made Christmas ornaments and one of her students (Jack Lynch) made her a ship that St. Paul sailed on during his missionary travels (below).

There will be no CCD sessions on 1/1, 1/2, & 1/4/23. CCD restarts on 1/8/23, 1/9/23 and 1/11/23. Reports cards will be distributed that day and will need to be signed and returned on 1/22, 1/23 & 1/25.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults): Please continue to pray for our candidates (Brigham Breiner, Michael Love, & Michael Pierce) and catechumens (Lori Accardi & Norsag Lama). Please come out and support them at the 11 am Mass on 1/18/23, they will be making their first public step in their process at the Rite of Welcoming of Baptized and the Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens.

All families new to the parish please contact me as soon as possible to discuss your child's religious education. I may be contacted at 215-357-2130 or stobin@st-bede.org. May St. Maximilian Kolbe and St. Therese of Lisieux bless you!

Families of Faith Initiative - what is it?

A call in the hearts of the parish leadership to support St. Bede families. You are invited to attend a series of gatherings of parents, grandparents, teachers, catechists, etc. with the purpose of:

- becoming aware of the serious challenges facing our young people in today's secularized culture.
- searching together the various best practices, strategies and means of mutual support for parents as they witness to the Catholic faith to their family:
 - accompanying young people in making moral decisions,
 - life-giving importance of celebrating the sacraments and
 - discerning their call to be disciples of Jesus Christ.

Hello Everyone

Happy New Year!!

May the Holy Family fill your homes with love, joy and peace this year! Friday was the feast of the Holy Family. While reflecting on a beautiful image of the Holy Family; Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I am reminded that their family was not perfect, dare I say it was a bit chaotic, complex and difficult. Chaotic in that after Jesus' birth they had to change course or change the plan and head to Egypt to protect the Child Jesus from being killed. Most of us are not escaping from a blood-thirsty king but I imagine there are many of us wanting to escape the chaotic work environments and other areas of chaos around us on a daily basis. Find comfort in knowing that the Holy Family is with you through that chaos.

Secondly, the Holy Family knows about when things become Complex. Traveling when pregnant and not having anywhere to rest sounds complex (and stressful) to me. This complex beginning to life here on earth does not seem fitting for this little one who is the savior of the world, yet this is the reality of his birth. Having to make a complex situation work is what parents do (I imagine Mary making a uncomfortable area comfortable for her child). Complex situations are handled by mothers—and fathers every day. Parents, just know that the Holy Family is with you through all the complexities of life.

Lastly, the Holy Family knew difficult times too. I imagine the community whispering behind their backs and snickering when they walked passed. I imagine those who may have saw Mary's growing belly, wondering what happened (thank God there was no such thing as Social Media back then). I even imagine those who later in life would want to throw Jesus out of his hometown (I imagine they would have thrown Mary out also), this mob scene happened when Jesus began revealing himself as the Messiah. The Holy Family definitely knows difficulties and they journey with you through your difficulties in life. Jesus, Mary and Joseph Pray for US!!

Thinking of all these aspects of family life reminded me to tell you that we are having our second Family of Faith Gathering (for Parents) on Wed, January 25th at 7pm in the cafeteria. This night will be different than the last one, at the last one we heard about the culture that our youth are encountering every day. The Culture Project bowled us over with statistics and stories which emphasized the need to stay aware, vigilant and prayerful as we parent in this culture. The next session will consist of a panel of parents who have children that are young adults. These parents will share some of their tips, strategies and pitfalls they encountered while raising their families. We are by no means saying theirs is the only way to parent, we believe there are nuggets of wisdom out there and we wanted to foster an atmosphere where parents can come together to hear and discuss the joys, frustrations and concerns of parenting in today's culture. I hope to see ALL of you on the 25th!

Parents Please Note: The youth are having a LEAD Night with a presentation by the Culture Project on Jan. 8th!

God Bless!
