Third Sunday of Easter

April 23, 2023

He took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized Him. Luke 24: 30-31

Rev. Monsignor
John C. Marine

My dear parishioners,

Over the last few Sundays, we have paid special attention in this bulletin to pictures of the five adults who participated in the RCIA, a process which means the Rites of Christian Initiation of Adults. In fact, this week's bulletin provides pictures of the three adults (Michael Pierce, Michael Love and Brigham Breiner) who, last Sunday at the 11:00am Mass, received the Sacraments of Confirmation and First Communion, after professing their belief in the teachings of the Catholic Church.

On the Second Sunday of Easter we featured the two adults (Norsang Lama and Lori Accardi) who had never been baptized and were fully initiated in Christ's Church at the Easter Vigil through Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. Why do we pay so much attention to them? Well, to welcome them for sure. And to share the Good News that new members are being constantly added to the Catholic Church.

But perhaps there is a more important reason, with implications for all of us. For their enthusiasm and joy serve as a signal to us of the same joy we should have each time we encounter Jesus in the Sacraments. Human nature being what it is, we who receive these Sacraments at an early age can sometimes receive them routinely, with little reflection on the awesome reality that Christ enters our life in such a special, transformative way.

These Fifty days of Easter are a significant time for new Catholics. It is referred to as "The Mystigogia," a Greek word which means "the uncovering of the mysteries." The newly baptized and the already baptized and now fully initiated Christians are encouraged during this season to reflect on what this experience truly means, and what the implications are for their life.

But really and truly, the entire community is to spend time asking the very same questions. Those who just entered the Church remind us that we should all be attentive to the ongoing process of conversion and renewal that God wants to happen in our lives, even if we have been born a Catholic.

We need Fifty Days of Easter to teach all of us the implications of living in the shadow of the cross, and living in the mystery of the Risen Lord. Jesus' passage from death to life paved the way, opened the doors, and mirrors the passage we must all make. Death has lost its power in Jesus' Resurrection! During this Easter season, we recommit to die and rise with Christ. And guided by His Holy Spirit, we now go out, to teach and baptize all nations, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

May God bless you.

Monsignor Marine

Welcome Our New Parishioners

Joseph Kifolo and family

New parishioners can register by seeing one of our priests after Sunday Mass. Or call the Parish Office at 215-357-5720 to speak to a priest.

Scripture Readings for Next Sunday

Fourth Sunday of Easter
April 30, 2023

Acts 2: 14a, 36-41

Psalms 23: 1-3a, 3b, 4-6

1 Peter 2: 20b-25

John 10: 1-10

All of our readings give us examples of good shepherds. In the gospel, of course, Jesus describes in great detail the duties and responsibilities of a good shepherd, and identifies himself as the premier Good Shepherd. In the first reading Peter, continuing his testimony, responds to his audience with a tenderness that softens his harsh rebuke and invites them to repent and be baptized. In his letter, Peter consoles those in his community who are suffering for their faith. How do you recognize the good shepherds in your life?

Remember The Deceased

Christopher Zenak, Mary Baglivo

We are united in prayer with their families and with one another as we and all the faithful departed await our rising with the Lord.

Principal's Corner

I would like to take the opportunity to offer a sincere “thank you” to those of you who have generously contributed to our first SKD Annual Fund. Your contribution is an investment in our Saint Katharine Drexel students, in our mission to “form Catholic leaders through academic excellence, personal discipline, and Christian service” and, most of all, in our ongoing crusade to protect the future of Catholic education.

Ms. Laura Clark

If you have not done so already, I ask that you please consider making a contribution. All gifts are tax-deductible. In addition to your generous support, I truly believe that you and your family share our same vision of the value of Catholic education for our children, which is why you are being asked to be a part of this group of benefactors to our Saint Katharine Drexel Annual Fund.

On behalf of Monsignor Marine, Reverend Michael Davis, Mrs. Alicia Figueroa, and our entire Board of Directors for Saint Katharine Drexel Catholic School, we thank you for your support, love, generosity, and prayers. ## FOOD FOR THE SOUL

Have you heard the term “Cafeteria Catholic?” It refers to someone who picks and chooses what they like or don't like; what they want to believe and practice about their faith. Let's create a new term, and let's all be “Banquet Catholics”, partaking in all the richness of our faith that God sets out before us.

Religious Education

Introduction to Theology of the Body by Christopher West (Ascension Press)

St. Bede the Venerable Parish Adult Faith Formation program will offer “An Introduction to Theology of the Body: Discovering the Master Plan for Your Life” starting on Tuesday, June 6th, 2023. It is an 8 week program for $40.00. Participants will meet in the Drexel Center Room B to view an engaging video presentation preceded by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship.

Based on Saint John Paul II’s revolutionary teaching and presented by world-renowned speaker and author Christopher West, “An Introduction to the Theology of the Body: Discovering the Master Plan for Your Life”, is a comprehensive system designed to lay a firm foundation for those who desire to incorporate the Theology of the Body into their daily lives. Most people have heard the “whats” of Catholic teaching, but very few have ever heard the “whys.” With profound insight, Christopher West demonstrates that the Church’s teaching on sex and marriage “makes sense”, and, in fact, is the “logic” of Christianity, because it corresponds perfectly with the deepest stirrings and desires of the human heart. This study is for everyone searching for their ultimate purpose in life.

Participants will:

- Learn why the redemption of our sexuality is the key to happiness.

- Develop a “new lens” through which to see the world with greater clarity.
- See how God’s mystery is revealed through the body and spousal love.
- Discover the truth behind the lies of lust and pornography and how they can be overcome
- ... and much more.

What comes with registration: 1) one year online access to “An Introduction to Theology of the Body”, 2) Workbook, 3) Online Workbook, and 4) snacks and beverages for all who participate in person.

Dates of Course: Tuesdays: 06/06, 06/13, 07/11, 07/18, 07/25, 08/08, 08/15, and 08/22/2023. The course will meet in the Drexel Center on Tuesday mornings from 9:45 to 11:15 AM and in the evenings from 7 to 8:30 PM. Participants can alternate between the two times since both sessions will be the same each week.

Please use the following link to register and sign up for the course: <https://forms.parishgiving.org/form-6337312/>
Registration will close for the course on 05/24/23. Thanks for your consideration.

Dear parishioners,

Happy Eastertide! Christ is risen! These are the days of celebration and renewal as we journey towards Pentecost. Let us all continue to pray for the Church, the Eucharistic Revival and for St. Bede the Venerable parish to be a beacon of God's love and hope to our community and the whole world!

Story of Our Lady: Our Lady of Happy Meeting in Le Laus France:

In 1664, Our Lady appeared to Benoit Rencurel, a poor shepherdess. Benoit (Benedicta) was born in the southern French Alps. The Virgin Mary continued appearing to her throughout the rest of her life, she died in 1718. During the apparitions, the Blessed Mother asked for a church and a house for priests to be built, for all to pray for sinners and conversion, through the sacrament of penance. The holy site draws 120,000 pilgrims annually. Numerous physical healings have also been associated with the site, especially when oil from a lamp is applied on the wounds according to the directives the Virgin Mary gave to Rencurel. Benedicta suffered with the stigmata the last 15 years of her life. Please check out the website for prayers to Our Lady of Laus and a prayer for the beatification of Venerable Benoit (Benedicta) (http://www.miraclehunter.com/marian\_apparitions/approved\_apparitions/laus/index.html)
