John 14: 21*

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR PASTOR

My dear parishioners,

Today as we celebrate Mother's Day, I join with all of you in honoring and remembering our mothers and yes, even our grandmothers, whether they are living or deceased. It is so easy to forget how important their guidance, influence and nurturing have been for each of us.

You know, as we progress in life and add diplomas, degrees, and accomplishments to our resumés, we can easily forget that while we worked hard for that degree or that promotion, it is not on our merits alone that we received it.

Let us consider for a moment the thoughts of two great men about the role their mothers played in their lives. George Washington once said, "My mother was the most beautiful woman I ever saw. All I am I owe to my mother. I attribute all my success in life to the moral, intellectual, and physical education I received from her." Abraham Lincoln spoke in similar words when he said, "All that I am or ever hoped to be I owe to my mother."

All mothers who wish to be true to their high calling need only to look to the woman who became the greatest mother of all – Mary, the mother of Jesus. Listen to what St. John Paul II wrote in his encyclical, Redemptoris Mater – Mother of the Redeemer: "It can thus be said that women, by looking to Mary, find in her the secret of loving their family with dignity, and achieving in them our truest advancement."

John Paul II continues: "In light of Mary, the Church sees in the face of woman the reflection of a beauty which mirrors the loftiest sentiments of which the human heart is capable: the self-offering, totality of love; the strength that is capable of bearing the greatest sorrows; limitless fidelity and tireless devotion to work; the ability to combine penetrating intuition with words of support and encouragement."

I cannot read these words without thinking of my own mother. I am an only child and at first my mother never wanted to hear me speak about going into the seminary. Her hope and plan was that her only son would someday marry, become a doctor or a lawyer or an executive, give her grandchildren, and make her happy. The interesting irony is that in many ways, my vocation came from the faith of my mother and father.

But like Mary had to do, my mother had to let God's plan push her own plan aside.

Perhaps Mary had hoped that her only Son Jesus, another only child, would have been like all the other children in Nazareth: eventually get married, have children and give her grandchildren. When Mary saw all the miracles her Son performed for people, she must have been so proud. Once I entered the seminary and my mother saw my happiness, it became her happiness as well. And she became my greatest support. When my mother was sick and dying, she was always surrounded not only by my caring aunts, uncles and cousins, but by the many priest friends, which had become her sons, as well. And so I say to all our mothers what I would say to my own mother in heaven: Mothers, we salute you. Mothers, we pray for you. Mothers, we love you.

May God bless you.

Scripture Readings for Next Sunday

Seventh Sunday of Easter May 21, 2023

Acts 1: 12-14

Psalms 27: 1-4, 7-8

1 Peter 4: 13-16

John 17: 1-11a

Jesus' fervent prayer in the Gospel is for His disciples, who will remain in the world while He departs. Sometimes it is a good practice to put ourselves into a passage from scripture. Today might be a good day to try this with the Gospel. As you listen to it, imagine that Jesus is praying for you along with His disciples from so long ago. Listen carefully to Jesus' prayer for you to take to heart His message for you today.

Welcome Our New Parishioners

2023 Padre Pio Festival / Picnic Sponsors

The planning for the 2023 Padre Pio Festival / Parish Picnic is well under way. Sponsorships play an integral part in helping to defray expenses and contribute to the overall success of the weekend. But Sponsor donations don't just happen. Each year we as a Parish reach out to past Sponsors and potential new ones to participate in the program. Also the Sponsors themselves need time to plan and allocate resources for the program.

To that end we are now reaching out to past Sponsors and looking for additional new ones to again insure the success of Festival. If you know of a potential Sponsor or you feel you might be interested in becoming a Sponsor, please contact us so we can give you all the necessary information and benefits of the program. We are also looking for a few more people to help us contact potential Sponsors, so please if interested feel free to contact Jim Fitzgerald at (215) 355-6096 (jfsales3146@gmail.com), John Lutz at (215)266-8891, (jwl2271@outlook.com) or Barb Rogowski at (215) 357-5720 (brogowski@st-bede.org)

(brogowski@st-bede.org)

Thank you for your continued support.

Religious Education

Dear parishioners,

Happy Eastertide! Christ is risen! Happy 6th Sunday of Easter! This Sunday, the Scriptures take us to Samaria with the Apostle Philip who proclaimed the Gospel to the people who both paid attention to what he was speaking and heard it (Acts 8:5-8, 14-17). This is such a poignant reading because these two points are probably the two biggest things that people struggle with during Mass, paying attention and hearing what is really being said. Two great ways to improve your experience at Mass are to 1) ask your guardian angel to open your heart to truly hear the Mass and to keep you focused and 2) consider taking a small journal to Mass with you and write down one point that stands out to you during the Mass. I learned this second point from the Catholic Evangelist, Mathew Kelly. He also recommends to take 15 minutes after Mass to journal on what touched your heart and why and how it can help you to be a better Catholic the next week. It is amazing, I did it several years ago and the Mass came alive for me, not only on Sunday but alive in my heart the rest of the week.

Eucharistic Revival: Continue to keep the Eucharistic Revival in your hearts and prayers and especially for all Catholic and all people to meet Jesus in the “Breaking of the Bread.” Prayer is the foundation of change and revival. Check out the Archdiocese Website for more information: <https://www.phillyeucharisticrevival.org/> and made Mary banners. Mrs. Berk and Mrs. Casey’s second graders had a big celebration in the cafeteria to continue their excitement of receiving Jesus two days earlier in First Holy Communion.

CCD Activities: CCD finished up in celebration and joy the first week of May. Mrs. Pettinelli’s Sunday class had a mini- may procession. Mrs. Amato’s and Ms. Fyke’s Sunday 2nd grade classes celebrated together. Mrs. Hamilton’s Sunday 3rd grade class had a drawing contest. Mrs. Cochran Monday class went and prayed a decade or the Rosary at the statue in the SKD main entrance due to the rain

A note of thanks

Dear Monsignor Marine,

Thank you for supporting St. Mary with your recent gift. Your support ensures that St. Mary will continue to lead the way in providing excellent and compassionate healthcare to the greater Bucks County region.

Here at St. Mary, our colleagues are driven by our shared purpose to improve the quality of life for everyone who comes through our doors. Your support plays a key role in our continued success. Thank you for your commitment to St. Mary Medical Center, our patients, and the community we serve together.

Sincerely,
James Green
Vice President and Chief Development Officer
Trinity Health Mid-Atlantic, Philanthropy

P.S. In this time of global health crisis, your gift to support healthcare in our community is deeply meaningful to us. Thank you for helping us ensure the best care for all our neighbors.

Introduction to Theology of the Body by Christopher West (Ascension Press)

St. Bede the Venerable Parish Adult Faith Formation program will offer “An Introduction to Theology of the Body: Discovering the Master Plan for Your Life” starting on Tuesday, June 6, 2023. It is an 8-week program for $40.00. Participants will meet in the Drexel Center Room B to view an engaging video presentation preceded by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship.

Based on Saint John Paul II’s revolutionary teaching and presented by world-renowned speaker and author Christopher West, “An Introduction to the Theology of the Body: Discovering the Master Plan for Your Life”, is a comprehensive system designed to lay a firm foundation for those who desire to incorporate the Theology of the Body into their daily lives. Most people have heard the “whats” of Catholic teaching, but very few have ever heard the “whys.” With profound insight, Christopher West demonstrates that the Church’s teaching on sex and marriage “makes sense”, and, in fact, is the “logic” of Christianity, because it corresponds perfectly with the deepest stirrings and desires of the human heart. This study is for everyone searching for their ultimate purpose in life.

Participants will:

- ◆ Learn why the redemption of our sexuality is the key to happiness.
- ◆ Develop a “new lens” through which to see the world with greater clarity.
- ◆ See how God’s mystery is revealed through the body and spousal love.
- ◆ Discover the truth behind the lies of lust and pornography and how they can be overcome

... and much more.

What comes with registration: 1) one year online access to “An Introduction to Theology of the Body”, 2) Workbook, 3) Online Workbook, and 4) snacks and beverages for all who participate in person.

Dates of Course: Tuesdays: 06/06, 06/13, 07/11, 07/18, 07/25, 08/08, 08/15, and 08/22/2023. The course will meet in the Drexel Center on Tuesday mornings from 9:45 to 11:15 AM and in the evenings from 7 to 8:30 PM. Participants can alternate between the two times since both sessions will be the same each week.

Please use the following link to register and sign up for the course: <https://forms.parishgiving.org/form-6337312/>

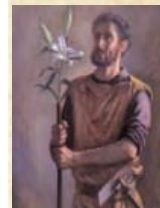

Registration will close for the course on 05/24/23. Thanks for your consideration.

Cornerstone for Life

Pro-Life advocates turn old Texas abortion clinic into a parenting center

By Micaiah Bilger for LifeNews

Texans are steadily transforming their state into a place that supports mothers and babies from the moment of conception. Right now in McAllen, pro-life advocates are working on plans to turn a former abortion facility into a parenting center – one that will offer free parenting classes, baby supplies, post-abortion counseling and more in one of the poorest parts of the state.

“This is a huge victory for the Lord because we did nothing. He did it all,” said Yolanda Chapa, founder of the McAllen Pregnancy Center, which now owns the building.

For 40 years, the abortion facility killed unborn babies in the Rio Grande Valley, the last decade under the Whole Women’s Health abortion chain. Chapa said that she prayed outside the abortion facility for 17 years, offering hope and support to abortion-minded mothers.

“I was there in the rain, or heat — sometimes it was 105 degrees and we were there from seven in the morning until like one,” she said.

All the while, she said she and other sidewalk counselors were called nasty names and yelled at by abortion workers. Chapa said they “hated” pro-lifers.

In 2008, Chapa opened the McAllen Pregnancy Center a few doors down from the abortion facility to offer life-affirming resources, including pregnancy tests, ultrasounds, diapers, referrals to doctors and more to struggling families, according to the report. Some of the women who they serve are considering abortions, others just need help, she said.

Every day for years, Chapa said she continued to pray for an end to abortion in her community. Then, in June, God answered her prayers and those of so many others when the U.S. Supreme Court overturned Roe v. Wade.
