Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 17, 2023

"Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times." MATTHEW 18: 21-22

Rev. Monsignor
John C. Marine

My dear parishioners and guests,

On behalf of Fr. Ryan, Deacon Dave and the parishioners of St. Bede the Venerable Parish, I welcome all of the visitors and pilgrims who join us for the spiritual and community festivities that are part of our annual Padre Pio Festival weekend.

May this weekend nourish your body, soul, and spirit. That is what Padre Pio did through his priestly life, when many people came to his monastery. Our hope is that this weekend will carry on his mission.

Today we welcome in a special way the shepherd of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, our Archbishop Nelson Perez. He will lead us in prayer at the Solemn Mass in honor of Padre Pio at 12:30pm, and walk in the procession following Mass. During the Mass, he will, by a decree that I will read, designate St. Bede Church as the Archdiocesan Shrine of Padre Pio. Through this shrine we will continue, by our Padre Pio Prayer Group which meets monthly, as well as welcoming pilgrims throughout the year, who pray before his statue and relic, Padre Pio's desire to bring others to Jesus Christ.

As far as this weekend's festivities, here is a summary of the spiritual events: On Saturday evening, our 5:30pm Mass will be in honor of Padre Pio. After the Mass there will be an opportunity to be blessed by the glove of Padre Pio.

All weekend, various relics will be on display for your veneration in our Padre Pio Chapel, located below our main church. Included in the relics are the blood-stained glove, the bandage he wore that covered the stigmata wound on his side, and a veil that covered Padre Pio's face when he was first entombed.

The Mosaic of St. Padre Pio and the Blessed Mother in heaven, located on our church's bell tower.

Perpetual Adoration Chapel Altar Candle Dedication

Sept. 18-24, 2023

In loving memory of Margaret & Joseph Jasins
(Req. by Nancy O'Leary)

Some 2024 dates are still available! Just come into the Parish Office. Candle dedications are a $30 donation for the week.

Scripture Readings for Next Sunday

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time September 24, 2023

Isaiah 55: 6-9

Psalm 145: 1-3, 8-9, 17-18

Philippians 1: 20C-24, 27A

Matthew 20: 1-16A

The Gospel is a well known parable of the workers in the vineyard, who each receive a full day's pay even though some worked far less. Sometimes in the busy-ness of our lives we lose sight of how generous God has been to us. Let us listen and learn again about a God whose ways are high above our own.

On Sunday the Main Mass is at 12:30pm. This will be followed by a street procession with Padre Pio's statue. The route is on Page 3 of this bulletin. Following the procession at approximately 3:00pm there will be a Healing Service during which the faithful will be blessed with holy oil and the veneration of Padre Pio's glove.

Confessions will be available during the 12:30pm Mass, during the procession, and again during the Healing Service. Several priests will be available.

I leave you with this quote from Padre Pio: "At times Our Lord makes you feel the burden of the cross. This burden seems intolerable to you. But as for you, carry it because the Lord extends His hand and gives you strength."

Come to the festival, where Padre Pio will place your hand in Jesus'.

May God bless you.

Principal's Corner

Hearts of Hope is our theme for this school year. In school, in class, in worship, and through everyday interaction, we nurture the spiritual growth of our students, grounding them in God's promises. This theme reminds us that our call is to live out our faith with assurance that God is with us and making all things new! Our Catholic Leader awards will be based on HOPE and each month will focus on a different scripture passage about HOPE. By having hearts full of hope each day, we continue to build our strong Catholic Leaders. With God there is always HOPE!

Ms. Laura Clark

As always, I thank you for your prayers and support for our school. We ask our Lord to help us remember our main purpose in life- to know, to love, and to serve Him through knowing, loving, and serving others!

Religious Education

Dear Missionary Disciples,

Thanks to everybody that continues to step up to the plate to help with CCD. We are getting there. We have all most have met all our needs. This is a great weekend for the Parish, with the Parish Picnic and the Padre Pio Festival. Hope to see all of you out this weekend. It should be a great time. May God grant our community much joy and many miracles through the intercession of Padre Pio.

Mr. Shawn Tobin

One of the many things I love about Padre Pio was his great relationship with the angels. At all hours of the day, his angel would come to him and other peoples' guardian angels would come to him with requests for help and prayers. This is how Padre Pio described it to one of spiritual daughters, Raffaolina Cerase: "You tell me that in the midst of the sufferings that oppress you, you often turn to me in your thoughts and you call me. Well, your good Guardian Angel sometimes transmits these necessities of yours and then I, in my unworthiness, always do my duty with Jesus, recommending you to his Fatherly goodness. (Letters vol. II, no. 30)... Oh Raffaolina, what a consolation it is to know one is always in the care of a celestial spirit, who does not abandon us (how admirable)... How sweet is this great truth for the believer!" (Letters vol. II, no. 41).
