A MESSAGE FROM YOUR PASTOR

My dear parishioners,

As I mentioned in a previous column several weeks ago, St. Charles Borromeo Seminary, one of the many pride and joys of our historic Archdiocese, will be moving from its famous location in Overbrook with the end of this current academic year in June, 2024. At this time, construction of the new seminary buildings on the campus of Gwynedd Mercy College is in full swing. The Archdiocese could not financially keep up with the tremendous maintenance needs of a massive campus built for several hundred seminarians of yesteryear.

The seminary building was a place that all the priests who have served you here at St. Bede and more than likely at other parishes where you were born or grew up or educated, were trained and formed. For us priests, this is a truly bittersweet moment. Sweet in that we know the formation of future priests that is renowned throughout the world will continue at the Gwynedd location. Nonetheless bitter in that the memories and the physical beauty of the campus which resembles the architecture and art of Italy will be left behind.

Several artifacts will be transported to the new campus, but obviously, not everything will fit into a much smaller footprint. Those that cannot fit have been made available for parishes throughout the country to repurpose at their location.

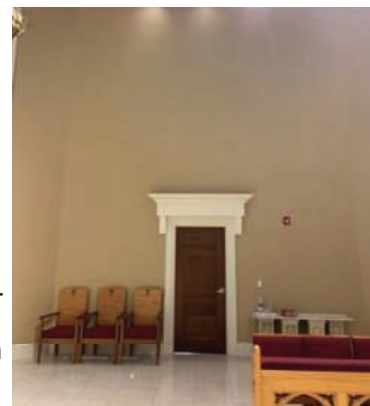

I am happy to announce that I secured two large paintings that had been housed for close to 100 years in the Immaculate Conception Chapel of our seminary's Theology division. The matching paintings portray the Transfiguration of Our Lord on Mount Tabor, and the

At left, Monsignor Marine standing next to the painting of the Assumption, gives you an idea of its size. At right, the painting of the Transfiguration will face the painting of the Assumption.

Assumption of Our Blessed Mother into heaven. They were removed from the seminary last Friday, and should be hung in time to view this weekend! Both paintings will face each other on corresponding walls, in our sanctuary. Their addition to our sanctuary will bring not only memories of the past but an added sense of inspiration to an already beautiful church, of which we are so proud.

One of the empty sanctuary walls, where the painting will be placed.

The significance of these paintings is particularly special to us priests. For the four years of seminary formation in the Theology division, we gazed upon these paintings at each Mass and devotion we attended in our beloved chapel. Now they will be a reminder of our alma mater, and a memorial to all the priests who have served you here at St. Bede, and will in the future.

May God bless you.

Matthew 22: 15-21

Isaiah speaks to Cyrus in our first reading. Cyrus was a king of Persia who conquered Babylon and liberated the Jewish people. In this reading, we see that it was the Lord who called Cyrus into action on behalf of the Jews. This reading gives a good preparation for the Gospel story about repaying Caesar what belongs to Caesar. For in the end, does not everything belong to God?

From Archbishop Perez

World Mission Sunday Collection, Oct. 21-22

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Archbishop Nelson J. Perez

On Oct. 22, we will join Catholics worldwide to observe World Mission Sunday by celebrating the love of the Lord and help bring the Good News to all corners of the earth. Inspired by the story of the disciples on the way to Emmaus, Pope Francis chose this year's theme, "Hearts on fire, feet on the move." He invites us to reflect on these images, their hearts burned within them as they heard the Scriptures explained by Jesus, their eyes were opened as they recognized Him and, ultimately, their feet set out on the way. As Missionary disciples, we seek inspiration in the Scriptures. We also look to the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist as the source and summit of the Church's mission so we can evangelize with zeal and urgency.

As we celebrate World Mission Sunday, we call to mind a Missionary disciple whose heart burned in the Gospel, Blessed Pauline Jaricot, foundress of the Pontifical Mission Societies (right). She recognized that all are called to participate in the Missionary work of the Church through spiritual and material offerings. Her vision led to World Mission Sunday, which helps the Pope support Missionary Activity.

The World Mission Sunday collection assists the Holy Father in proclaiming the Gospel and celebrating the Sacraments in over 1,222 Mission dioceses and areas that are young and in need of resources. Your gifts help build and operate schools and orphanages, construct churches, train catechists and educate Mission seminarians and Religious men and women.

I urge you to keep your hearts aflame and your feet moving this World Mission Sunday and every day. Working together with that spirit, we can bring everyone to recognize Jesus in the Word and the Eucharist. Your prayers are invaluable, and your financial support provides life-giving aid to our brothers and sisters around the world.

Sincerely in Christ,
 Most Rev. Nelson J. Perez, D.D.
 Archbishop of Philadelphia

Religious Education

Dear Missionary Disciples,

Let us all pray for peace in the world, the United States, our homes and in our own hearts. There are no words I can say regarding all painful and difficult atrocities going on throughout the world and in our own nation. In these terrifying times, let us take hope in the words of Jesus, "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me." (John 14:1)

Baby Bottle Drive Collection Next Week

We are inviting St. Bede parishioners to join us in saving lives and transforming families! The Legacy of Life Foundation works to fund three crisis pregnancy centers, one in Bucks County, Philadelphia and Warminster. Every year more than 1000 women walk through our doors seeking an abortion. They are scared, confused, and they have no support. Because of caring supporters like you, over 300 babies got a chance at life last year! Our advocacy program empowers women, teaching life skills and job coaching throughout their pregnancy, and for at least three years after their babies are born.

~ Our Mission ~

- ◆ To save lives and transform families by providing -
  - Free pregnancy tests, counseling, and ultrasound exams
  - Free life skills classes for three years!
  - Free basic baby essentials for three years!
  - Free ongoing counseling and support

We can't do any of this without YOUR generous support! This year's baby bottle drive began with a guest speaker at all Masses this weekend, with the collection Oct. 21-22. Please make checks payable to the Legacy of Life Foundation, write your information on the envelope for tax purposes and bring it back to church the following week or just mail it in. Or you can donate online at www.legacyoflifefoundation.org
