Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 22, 2023

"Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."
MATTHEW 22: 21

Rev. Monsignor
 John C. Marine

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR PASTOR

My dear parishioners,

In today's Gospel for World Mission Sunday, we hear what Jesus does when He knows He is walking into a trap. This trap presents what could be an unresolvable challenge to personal loyalty. What is owed to Caesar and what is owed to God?

In response, Jesus speaks the truth in a simple way. He asked those around Him to consider the standards by which they owe things to an authority. In other words, where their loyalties lie. Jesus helps them and we acknowledge that while we owe our loyalty ultimately to God, we often must honor that by respecting our duties toward others.

Discipleship requires us to consider to whom I belong. Where my loyalties lie, and who I must serve. Surely each of us is called and strives to remain faithful to some duties in our own place – towards our families, neighbors, jobs, neighborhoods and friends. But if we are to take our faith seriously, we are also concerned about others who are far away from us. These connections to others pull us especially when we see them in light of our personal relationship to Jesus.

As Christians, we are invested with duties with love for people we have never met, and to places we have never been. Which is the theme of World Mission Sunday. That is part of the work of mission: to deepen the connections that already exist between me and someone far away from me, to whom I am united in Christ.

Perhaps this person is already a Christian, and so we are mystically united by our common baptism. Or maybe this person is just now learning of Christ, or desires to know of Christ. And that introduction will be made possible by the work of people who are sent to share the Good News with them. This appreciation might even help me to find the energy and interest to collaborate in work that I personally cannot do because I have responsibilities where I am, and cannot go to those places and meet those people. But I can be a part of the work through the support of prayer and practical charity.

May the grace we receive in this Eucharist today help us all to learn the truth of these loyalties, responsibilities and connections. And going from this place of worship, may we find the energy to deepen our personal commitment to our common Christian mission: to announce Christ in His Gospel to all the world. Please be as generous as possible with your prayers and donations to the World Mission Sunday Appeal.

May God bless you.

Scripture Readings for Next Sunday

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time October 29, 2023

Exodus 22: 20-26

Psalms 18: 2-4, 47, 51

1 Thessalonians 1: 5c-10

Matthew 22: 34-40

Once again, Jesus finds Himself being tested by the Pharisees. This time He is asked to name the greatest law. He does so, but immediately invokes its complement, placing love of God and love of neighbor on equal footing. Indeed, His point is that you cannot have one without the other. So let us listen for the challenge: how is our love of God reflected in our love of neighbor?

St. Bede Padre Pio Prayer Group Meets this TUESDAY

The next meeting of the Padre Pio Prayer Group will be held on Tuesday Oct. 24 at 7pm in the Padre Pio chapel (lower church). The meeting will be preceded by the praying of the rosary.

Rosary will be followed by an opportunity to hear a short teaching on our Catholic faith which will include questions and discussions. The meeting will conclude with time to remember our loved ones by name, and other intentions for Padre Pio's intercession.

For more information, please call the Parish Office at 215-357-5720.

New Sanctuary Paintings Update

In last week's bulletin I mistakenly said that the two paintings we acquired from St. Charles Seminary would be hanging in our sanctuary by now. However, when they were removed from the Seminary Chapel last week, it became evident that after having been hanging in that Chapel for over 100 years, they needed extensive cleaning and careful restoration. As a result they are temporarily housed in the priest's garage, where parishioner and sacred art restorer Ed Rogowski is working on them each day.

It will take several weeks to finish but I trust that they will be hanging in our church sanctuary in the near future.

- Monsignor Marine

Parishioner and sacred art restorer Ed Rogowski explains the extent of the issues with the paintings and frames to Monsignor Marine.

Pilgrimage to Sicily – Rome 2025

Over the last two years since the pandemic, people have been asking me when I will sponsor another trip to Sicily and Rome, like I did before. I am pleased to announce that God willing, Fr. Tom O'Donald and I will be leading a pilgrimage to Sicily and Rome for late January-early February, 2025. I realize this is a long way off, but planning for such a trip takes a lot of coordination. At this point, the projected dates will be January 29 through February 8, 2025. More details will follow. At this point I would like to begin to see the level of interest before opening it up beyond the parish. For more information, contact me at the Parish Office: 215-357-5720

Principal's Corner

Our teachers are constantly seeking innovative ways to make learning fun and meaningful for their students in order to reach each student's level and adapt to each child's learning style. We know how very special your children are, and they are eager to learn and grow together. Here are some of our latest happenings:

Ms. Laura Clark

- Our Annual Golf Outing was a huge success last weekend when 112 golfers participated. We are so grateful to all of our donors, supporters, players, and volunteers. Many thanks to Lindsay Margiotti for coordinating this big event for our school!
- Our students continue to be recognized for their efforts and kindness. Some ways we acknowledge our students include: Random Acts of Kindness, Catholic Leader Award, and the Good Writer's Club! We are proud of our students and their accomplishments.
- Our 6th, 7th, and 8th grade girls competed in the Villa Joseph Marie High School Sciathlon this past week! Our girls in grades 6 and 7 came in FIRST PLACE! We are so proud of their hard work.
- Our Leadership Team and Student Council are coordinating some school events which includes a school-wide service project called Operation Christmas Child.

Please take the time to spread the good news about our school! Together, let us thank God for the determination, effort, support, and talents that we possess that make Saint Katharine Drexel Catholic School the best that it can be!

Resources to assist with healing, accompaniment and flourishing. The Archdiocese of Philadelphia has launched a website with resources to support those who are experiencing mental health struggles and those who love them. The website offers links to find Catholic clinicians, local crisis response phone numbers and ministries that can assist with recovery and healing. In addition, there are tools to help parishes, schools and institutions cultivate a deeper awareness of and responsiveness to these realities, suffered by so many. Volunteers Needed

Dear Faithful Catholics,

As Chaplain of St. John Neumann, I am responsible for the spiritual welfare of the residents & employees of St. John Neumann Center in Northeast Philadelphia. While no longer owned by the Church, SJN maintains regular Mass, sacraments and devotions for the benefit of the residents. Before COVID there were many volunteers who helped throughout the building, now there are a handful of devoted volunteers. Typically, Mass is at 11AM Monday to Thursday, and Sunday Mass is usually at 2PM and sometimes earlier. On Friday & Saturday our volunteers lead the Rosary & other devotions at 11AM. All Masses are open to the public.

In pastoral care we could use volunteers who are willing to give residents a listening ear, help transport residents to Chapel, bring them Holy Communion and pray with them. If anyone might be interested, please e-mail me at hmcckale@stjnrehab.org or leave a message at my SJN 215-698- 5664 .

To volunteer I would need a letter from your pastor attesting that you are a practicing Catholic in good standing.
"As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace (1Peter 4:10).
 May God bless you & Mary keep you.

Religious Education

Dear Missionary Disciples,

As the Eucharistic Revival continues throughout the United States, let us all take the time to learn more about Jesus in the Eucharist and more importantly to know Jesus in the Eucharist. Here is a quote from the catechism paragraph 1355 that reflects on the Eucharist: "In the communion, preceded by the Lord's prayer and the breaking of the bread, the faithful receive 'the bread of heaven' and 'the cup of salvation,' the body and blood of Christ who offered himself for the life of the world'. [Jn 6:51.]

Mr. Shawn Tobin

Because this bread and wine have been made Eucharist ('eucharisted,' according to an ancient expression), "we call this food Eucharist, and no one may take part in it unless he believes that what we teach is true, has received baptism for the forgiveness of sins and new birth, and lives in keeping with what Christ taught." [St. Justin, Apol. 1, 66,1-2: PG 6, 428.] Lord please bring down your loving grace upon all your people so that we all can truly know and yearn for you in the Eucharist! Have a great Sunday everyone!

Missionary Disciples Needed: CCD: Please consider assisting our CCD children to grow in their faith. Please reach out to me if you are able to help as a: Catechist: Sundays (9:00 am to 10:45 am), Mondays (4:15 pm to 6:00 pm), Wednesdays (4:15 pm to 6:00 pm): subs all grades; Special Needs Catechists or aides: 1 each on Sundays and Mondays Hall Monitors: Sundays, Mondays, Wednesdays: 1 sub each; Parking Lot Monitors: Sundays, Mondays, and Wednesdays: 1 sub each day. Pre-Jordan Program: Please consider helping with our Pre-Jordan program as a catechist. We need joyful married couples to help new parents understand the faith and the beauty and the magnificent gift they give their children in Baptism. Thank you!

CCD Highlights: Last week in CCD, the children participated in class and Confessions! CCD Upcoming Events: Confirmation Seminars: 10/22 or 10/24; All Saints Day: 11/1; Presentation of Confirmation Candidates: 11/5 at 11 am Mass; CCD Food Drive: 11/5, 6 & 8; First Penance Seminars: 11/7 or 11/11; Thanksgiving Holiday: No CCD-11/19, 20 & 22; Advent Wreath Making: 11/26;

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults): Has started back up! It is not too late to join us if you are still thinking about becoming Catholic. We meet every Thursday in the Drexel Center at 7 pm. Please pray for all our candidates and catechumens that are discerning their faith journey.

All families new to the parish please contact me to discuss your child's religious education. I may be contacted at 215-357-2130 or stobin@st-bede.org. May Blessed Carlo Acutis and St. Clare of Assisi bless and pray for you!

Hello Everyone

The teens who come to Triple T this week were honored to have a visit from Father Friel and two seminarians. Father Friel is actually the person that named Teen Topic Thursday's when he was with us as a seminarian in 2007. They joined us as we reflected on this weeks Gospel (what a phenomenal conversation we had discussing- is the Church necessary for someone to be saved) The seminarians then told their vocation story and answered questions. It was a wonderful night!!!

Maritza Carmona-Kelly

The teens also had their annual Glow Frisbee event on Saturday night, YES, in the rain!!!! It was a bit cold but the game was great!!! Green Team was victorious!! Afterwards the teens hung out in our Youth Center.

God Bless you all!!!
