A MESSAGE FROM YOUR PASTOR

My dear parishioners,

So this coming Thursday we gather with family and friends to celebrate the one national holiday that has clear, definite religious overtones. And that, of course, is Thanksgiving. It raises the question, Why is Thanksgiving to God so essential? Why did the return of the one leper out of ten to give thanks to Jesus win so much praise from the Lord?

When we are grateful, we have greater happiness and satisfaction in our lives. We are more alert and attentive to recognize the satisfaction that already exists in our lives, without having to look for more. That quest for more can be suffocating to the point that we are never happy or grateful for what is right in front of us.

Gratitude lifts our spirits and self-worth. Sometimes we compare ourselves too much to others, to the point that we forget what we have. Gratitude helps us to sense God's presence in our lives. We can become too "me" centered, and forget that all we have ultimately is from God.

A thankful attitude reveals solutions to challenges we cannot see on our own. Be thankful, in other words, for that friend who tells you the truth, even if it hurts. Be thankful you have someone in your life like that.

Notice in the word "gratitude" is the word "attitude." If we train our children to have the attitude of entitlement and not gratitude, we are not preparing them for the real world. How easy it is to forget the many good things we already have in life, and concentrate on what we do not have.

I suggest something I find helpful: from time to time I look at old family albums and recall relatives and friends who touched my life, yet are no longer with me. My parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, teachers, priests. I remember the blessings they brought into my life. They were not perfect, and like me, had their flaws. But I see them and I say, "Thank you, Lord."

At every Mass, but especially the Mass we celebrate here at St. Bede on Thanksgiving Day, we come to the heart of the liturgy, at the consecration. When the priest repeats the words of Jesus, "Do this in remembrance of Me." And when we hear those words we are asked to remember the greatest reason for Thanksgiving: that God in His Son Jesus loves us so much, that He became one of us, that we might have eternal life.

So I invite you to come to Mass on Thanksgiving Day at 9:00am, and recall all that you and I have received from the Hand of the Lord.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Monsignor Marine

What a vision the Gospel presents to us! The Son of man in His glory with all the nations assembled before Him, judging the deeds of all those gathered in His presence. And what are the criteria for judgment? Feeding the hungry and thirsty, clothing the naked, caring for the ill, visiting prisoners. In our modern international economy, it can be difficult to figure out who is responsible for what, but all of us must try. Let us think about how we will answer the Lord's questions.

A Great Food Drive

Thank you to all who contributed to our Thanksgiving Food Drive this past Sunday!! Donations of fixings for Thanksgiving dinner as well as 35 turkeys, miscellaneous food items, gift cards and turkey receipts, were dropped off by parishioners.

2,778 pounds of food was donated to Jesus Focus Food Pantry as well as several pounds of food items added to our pantry at St. Bede's.

St., Katharine, Drexel School made up 23 beautiful gift baskets. Half of the baskets were shared with Assumption Parish. Food baskets, as well as turkeys and a gift cards for perishable food items were given out to 10 families in our community. Our CCD children restocked the pantry here at St. Bede's with their generous donation of food items.

Special thanks to the Knights of Columbus who sorted, packed the trucks, and delivered the food to Jesus Focus Pantry. Your help was greatly appreciated.

Thanks to all for your generosity. May you have a Blessed Thanksgiving!

Dear Missionary Disciples,

As we prepare for Thanksgiving, I wanted to thank you for the great opportunity you have given me to help you teach your children the faith and help the rest of the parish grow closer to God through the Pre-Jordan program, Adult Faith Formation Program, the St. Joseph's Men's Group and the RCIA program. Have a Happy Thanksgiving everyone! Please consider coming to the 9 am Thanksgiving Mass. It is a great way to give thanks to God.

Mr. Shawn Tobin

Story of Our Lady: Our Lady of the Eucharist: Eucharist is Greek for Thanksgiving! From the beginning of the church, Our Lady has been honored as the Theotokos, or God Bearer and the Lady of the Eucharist. God predestined her to be the one to carry and birth Jesus, our Savior that came to die for us and then give himself to us at the Last Supper to sustain us on our earthly journey to heaven through the Eucharist at every Mass we participate in. So may all of us ask Our Lady of the Eucharist to pray for us, our families and the world this Thanksgiving! For she was the one that brought the gift we can be most thankful!

Missionary Disciples Needed: Pre-Jordan Program:

Please consider helping with our Pre-Jordan program as a catechist. We need joyful married couples to help new parents understand our Catholic faith and the beauty and the magnificent gift they give their children in Baptism. Thank you! Please reach out to me ASAP.

CCD Highlights: Lots of fun this week with the Monday Session 2nd grades (right) preparing for Thanksgiving and Mrs. Delong Daynorowicz 4th Graders (below learning about the different types of prayer.

Hello Everyone

Many of our youth came out last Sunday to help with the parish food drive. They helped carry bags to the pick up trucks and collected food from the drop off locations in the church. Sunday night was a Middle School Youth Group meeting. It was a cold night outside but that did not prevent a bunch of our youth from coming out to a fun night. The focus of our night was the Works of Mercy. The youth did an expressive reading of Matthew 25 and they made crown ornaments for homebound parishioners. Photos are in the box with the heading Middle School Youth Group. A BIG THANK YOU to the Middle School Youth Group Leaders: Mrs. Meredith DiLiberto, Matt Baxter and Johari Crews. AND.... The Teen Leaders that helped out at the meeting; Gianna DiLiberto, Josh Morris and Lori Accardi.

Maritza Carmona-Kelly

I must share something with you. I have advertised the BLAZE Girls group and ANCHORED Guys Group here for the last few weeks. We have a number of girls interested in BLAZE but I am a bit concerned that we are NOT getting any interest from boys in our parish for the Anchored Guys Group. I have advertised it here in the bulletin, in our school, to the kids in the youth group and I've even reached out to some guys personally but from all of this I have gotten a very poor response (just one guys). The Anchored -guys group is an opportunity for our young men to come together to discuss issues that concern them as they reach puberty, start dating and find themselves maneuvering manhood as the world defines it versus how God defines it. The group is run by Mr. Bill Hewitt a parishioner, volunteer catechist and member of our Men's group. The program uses videos from the Ydisciple section of the FORMED Catholic media portal. Someone may be thinking, why can't my son just watch the videos on FORMED. Well of course he could but that would not give him a brotherhood of Catholic guys to discuss the topic with. There is such strength in having that brotherhood. Parents, - PLEASE discuss this opportunity with your sons and reach out to me if you need additional information.

God Bless!!
Maritza

Gift Cards for Thanksgiving

Food store gift cards are needed for families during Thanksgiving. Each year we give Thanksgiving food baskets and turkeys to those in need. Along with food baskets, we like to give a gift card to a food store for perishable items. Gift cards to ACME and GIANT are available for sale at the Rectory. Please help us to continue this outreach. Gift cards can be left in the Parish Nurse mailbox in the rectory, or brought to the Food Drive on November 12.

Thank you and God Bless!

Resources to assist with healing, accompaniment and flourishing. The Archdiocese of Philadelphia has launched a website with resources to support those who are experiencing mental health struggles and those who love them. The website offers links to find Catholic clinicians, local crisis response phone numbers and ministries that can assist with recovery and healing. In addition, there are tools to help parishes, schools and institutions cultivate a deeper awareness of and responsiveness to these realities, suffered by so many. Visit the Be Encouraged website at www.archphila.org/support.
