Easter Sunday March 31, 2024

Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. John 20: 1

HE IS RISEN! ALLELUIA!

Rev. Monsignor
John C. Marine

My Dear Parishioners,

Why do we rejoice today, on this Easter Sunday? After all, the story of the suffering and death of Jesus on Good Friday is the story of the triumph of falsity over truth, of injustice over justice, of evil over goodness. Jesus was falsely charged with crimes He did not commit, and unjustly sentenced to a death He did not deserve. A good friend betrayed him, His trusted companions deserted Him, and His number one man denied Him.

The people He loved demanded His crucifixion, and chose to have the bandit Barabbas released in His place. It is a story of betrayal, of lies, dishonesty, unfaithfulness and wicked violence directed at an innocent and apparently helpless victim.

But we rejoice because death is not the end of the story. There is one more chapter. This is the most important chapter, and in the last chapter of the Story of Jesus, we see Him today rise from the dead in all glory and majesty. He is vindicated. His enemies are ashamed and confused. Jesus regains His eternal glory with the Father. He is the Lord who will prevail over all humankind, His enemies included. And for us, his embattled followers, this is Good News.

Especially in the day and age in which we live, it is good news to know that truth is immortal. We can suppress truth, accuse it of being a lie, condemn it, torture it, kill it, bury it in the grave, but on the third day, truth will rise again. Remember this, and do not give up on truth, even when everybody seems to give up on it. Do not give up on truth, do not give up on justice. Do not give up on doing what is right. True will always be true. Just will always be just.

We must learn to believe in the sun, even when it is not shining. Knowing that by and by, it will shine again. It is the end of the story that counts. That is why the Church asks us today to rejoice and be glad.

Today on Easter Sunday we must remember that even when we are going through very difficult times, through betrayal, unjust discrimination, lies, misrepresentations, even when the enemy seems to be winning the battle in our lives and in our world, today Christ has Won. And we know that in Christ, we shall overcome. Alleluia - He is Risen!

Happy Easter,

Monsignor Marine

Scripture Readings for Next Sunday

Second Sunday of Easter Sunday of Divine Mercy April 7, 2024

Acts 4: 32-35

Psalms 118: 2-4, 13-15, 22-24

1 John 5: 1-6

John 20: 19-31

On this Divine Mercy Sunday we recall the words of Saint Thomas Aquinas: "Mercy consists in bringing a thing out of non-being into being." We see this transpire concretely in the life of the early Church. The community of believers "was of one heart and mind" and "they had everything in common." They were filled with awe; they were witnesses of wondrous signs; they dedicated themselves to the good of the other; they were selfless and generous. They lived with the faith that "conquers the world." That is what the Apostle Thomas is looking for in the Lord's open side.

Home Visitations

If you have a parent or relative living with you permanently or during a recuperation period who is unable to attend Mass and the Sacraments, call St. Bede's Parish Office at 215-357-5720 to set-up Home Communion visits by our Priests and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion.

Come to the Feast of Divine Mercy

On the Sunday after Easter, April 7
1:30pm: Exposition and Holy Hour in St. Bede Church, with the praying of the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy
(with confessions)

Followed by Benediction and concluding prayers.

Jesus told St. Faustina that she was to prepare the world for His Second Coming and that He would be pouring out His Mercy in very great abundance before He comes again as the Just Judge and as the very last home for Salvation.

If you have been away from the practice of your Catholic faith, and if you would like to come back, this is a perfect opportunity for you.

Don't consider yourself as without hope. Our Lord Jesus wants to pardon completely even the worst sinners possible. If you are truly repentant of your sins and are well prepared to confess your sins in the Sacrament of Confession, you'll experience a tremendous peace. You'll experience a great weight lifted from you and get a brand new start in life!

Adoration Society

*This is the perfect place where we can come to pray.
Where we can sit and contemplate the blessings of each day.*

*We come when life is easy and happiness abounds.
We come to tell Him "thank you" for the joy that we have found.*

*We come when life's exciting and we have news to share.
We come because He listens and longs to show His care.*

But Also

*We come when we are lonely; we come when we're afraid.
We come to seek God's pardon when we have lost our way.*

*We come to feel His comfort while expressing deepest thoughts.
We come to be reminded of the lessons Christ has taught.*

*We come for reassurance and the grace to love, each day.
We come to ask for courage to follow in His way.*

*We come for all these reasons and many more besides.
We come to this Chapel where we know our Lord resides.*

*No one is alone here in this special place of prayer.
We are each one united in this Sacrament we share.*

Ann Robbins

We would like to wish all the members of the Adoration Society and their families a very blessed and happy Easter!

Our Adoration Chapel is open to all every day from 7:00am to 9:00pm. Between 9:00pm and 7:00am, only members of the Adoration Society who commit to a late-night or early morning time for adoration will know the combination and lock to access the chapel.

PAVE THE WAY Capital Campaign 2024

This summer we will completely rebuild our almost 60 year old parking lot. Everyone's support is needed for this $500,000 project. Please fill out the donor card you should have received in the mail this week. Donations can be made in the following ways:

- ◆ By check or cash in the envelope received with the donor card. The donor card can also be used to indicate whether the enclosed donation is complete or whether additional payments will be made to fulfill the pledge. Please place the donor card in the envelope and return in the collection basket or to the parish office.
- ◆ By check or cash in our monthly pink Capital Campaign Parking Lot Project envelopes. This is a good way to make regular payments to fulfill the pledge indicated on the donor card.
- ◆ By credit card or bank transfer through our e-giving website (qr code at right)

CAMPAIGN UPDATE

Thank you for the generous contributions to the Pave the Way campaign. We still have a way to go, but the donations we have received thus far are sufficient to proceed with releasing the project specifications to paving contractors. We are encouraged that by the time the bids are returned, we will have received additional pledges and donations that will approach the campaign goal.

Principal's Corner

Happy Easter! I hope you are enjoying this beautiful time of year. It was great to see so many people in attendance for the two night presentation of our annual Passion Play. Our students did a magnificent job of portraying the life, death, and resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ. I am very proud of all of them as I am sure you share in this sense of pride.

Ms. Laura Clark

During the month of April, we continue to have Hearts Full of HOPE. Each day, we remind our students about this important theological virtue which allows us to believe in God and accept all that he has revealed to us in Jesus. We encourage our students to recognize that all of us are made in the image and likeness of God, and our faith unites us together as the family of God, brothers and sisters of Jesus.

During this Easter season, may you experience a renewal of faith all because of our Savior! “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that all who believe in Him might not perish but might have eternal life.”

Religious Education

Dear parishioners,

Happy Easter! Christ is risen! Rejoice in the great love that Jesus has giving all of by dying on the Cross, defeating death and setting a place for us in his heavenly Kingdom. Easter is so special to the Church that it is celebrated as an Octave, like Christmas. Our celebration in Christ does not end on Easter Sunday but continues through the whole week until Divine Mercy Sunday, which completes the eighth day of the Octave. So keep the celebration going all week! Make sure to talk to your kids during the week about Easter and its meaning. Take them out for family fun nights and celebrations to Feast.

Consider starting a new tradition of blessing yourself in public when you eat! Consider going to daily Mass or pray a Rosary in thanksgiving to God for Jesus and Easter. Furthermore, the Easter Octave (i.e. celebration) is a foreshadowing of journey to heaven, seven days to represent our journey through the trials of life and our time on earth and the eighth day to symbolize eternity and our expected joy with Christ in heaven forever. This Christian tradition came from the Jewish tradition of celebrating their great feast for eight days and for the Jews and early Christians that the number eight was a symbol of eternity. Happy Easter, enjoy the celebration and may you have a great Divine Mercy Sunday Next week! Don't forget to partake in the great gift of Divine Mercy Sunday next week by going to confession on Saturday and going to Mass on Divine Mercy Sunday. God promises to St. Faustina that he would take away all your sins and temporal punishments up until that point of your life if you do!

CCD Upcoming Events: NO CCD this week: 3/31, 4/1 & 4/3. Enjoy Easter! Mark your calendar for the May Procession and Crowning of the Blessed Mother: 5-6-23 (5pm in the Cafeteria); Please continue to pray for our First Communicants who receive Jesus on April 20th. Registration for 2024-25 starts July 8th. Sign up early for the best discounts.

RCIA: Congrats to Sean Meyers and Josh Moss whom were fully initiated into the Catholic Church at the Vigil Mass! Please congratulate them when you see them around St. Bede. They now are brothers in Christ and set free in the sacrament of Baptism.

All families new to the parish please contact me to discuss your child's religious education. I may be contacted at 215-357-2130 or stobin@st-bede.org

Join the Legion of Mary

The Legion of Mary is the largest apostolic organization of lay people in the Catholic Church, with well over 3 million active members in almost every country of the world. Members become instruments of the Holy Spirit through a balanced program of prayer and service. Works include door-to-door evangelization, parishioner visitation, prison ministry, visitation of the sick or aged, crowd contact, religious education, visiting the newly baptized, Pilgrim Virgin Statue rotations, and meeting the other spiritual needs of the parish community. Legionaries are under the guidance of a spiritual director named by the pastor. The Legion is, in essence, an extension of the heart and hands of the pastor.

Members meet once a week for prayer, planning and discussion in a family setting. Then they do two hours of definite work each week in pairs and under the guidance of their spiritual director.

WHO CAN BELONG?

The Legion of Mary is open to all Catholics who:

- Faithfully practice their religion;
- Are animated by the desire to participate in the Church's apostolate through membership in the Legion;
- Are prepared to fulfill each and every duty which active membership in the Legion involves.

HOW CAN I GET MORE INFO?

April 12 – 14, 2024

in Doylestown, PA, at the National Shrine of Our Lady of Czestochowa

To register, or for more information, please call Evelyn at (215) 317-5752.

This retreat will also be offered in the Polish language the same weekend.

Please call 201-754-8201

or email kontakt@winnicaracheli.org to register.

Read more about our retreats online at www.rachelsvineyard.org.

All requests are strictly confidential.

Pray for the Sick

A name will stay in the bulletin for FOUR WEEKS. The contact person must notify the Parish Office if the person needs to stay on the list, or they will be removed. Names can be put on the prayer list by contacting the Parish Office in person, by phone (215-357-5720) or by email (pmcnally@st-bede.org).
