16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 21, 2024

For they were like sheep without a shepherd, and He began to teach them many things.
Mark 6: 34

Rev. Monsignor
John C. Marine

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR PASTOR

My dear parishioners,

The world needs better leadership. For all the time we spend talking about leadership, studying leadership, writing about leadership, we do not seem to be making much of a difference. We experience the effects of bad leadership in our workplaces and communities, and even in our country. When will things ever improve?

St. Benedict, the founder of Western Monasticism, understands our problem. In his own lifetime, he saw a lot of bad leadership all around him. The world as he knew it was coming undone because the leaders of his age could not manage the challenges before them.

So Benedict wrote rules for his monks, and in the rules we discover that what he is doing is applying the Bible to the practical matters that faced his community. Something we should all do. Throughout the Bible, the main image for a leader is a shepherd. Shepherds were never folks high on the social ladder, which may seem surprising.

For Benedict, being a leader was not about being high in stature, but about being a servant. Shepherds most often cared for sheep that were not their own. In fact, they were even asked to risk their own lives to protect them. Christ, our Shepherd, always acknowledged that His sheep, His disciples and followers, belong to God, His Father. He died to protect us as a good shepherd would, from sin and death.

Benedict also understood that leaders need to provide those under them with what each one of them needed to make progress. Looking at Christ in the Gospel for this weekend, we see that He wanted to give the disciples some rest after the demanding work they had accomplished. Jesus sent the disciples on a mission to challenge them and give them confidence. And now He saw that they needed rest, and time to reflect with each other on what they had learned from their experiences. A true shepherd adapts to the situation, which is why Christ the Shepherd would leave 99 sheep to themselves to focus to one lost sheep. Each sheep was important.

Too often our leaders are not the people they make themselves appear to be. Benedict was aware of this too, so for him, leaders of monastic communities were to lead by example.

Once, such a teaching moment arose in the Gospel for this Sunday, when crowds of people followed Jesus and His apostles. Jesus could have tried to lose them. Or He could have chased them away. But as a good leader, He considered what example that would set for His disciples. If He truly came to tend to the lost sheep of Israel and prepare His disciples to do the same, He needed to change His plan. So as a Good Shepherd, Christ fed the people rather than rest.

Let us keep this Gospel in mind, especially if we are called to leadership in our families, at work, or as a coach. Or in so many other ways that come up in life. And finally, may God raise up men and women among our citizens, who will lead, like Christ, this great country of ours.

May God Bless you.

Scripture Readings for Next Sunday

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

2 Kings 4: 42-44

Psalms 145: 10-11, 15-18

Ephesians 4: 1-6

John 6: 1-15

The refrain from Psalm 145 is a good summary of the word of God that we will hear proclaimed: "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs." As we listen, let us be mindful of all the ways that the Lord feeds us, especially through our brothers and sisters around us.

Welcome Our New Parishioners

Cornerstone for Life

Natural Family Planning Honors God's Design for Married Love and Life

As a practical and ethical aid in married life, the practice of Natural Family Planning (NFP) intersects with the deepest levels of the spousal relationship. In the words of St. John Paul II, NFP is "a valuable help to responsible parenthood, in which all individuals, and in the first place the child, are recognized and respected in their own right and where every decision is guided by the ideal of the sincere gift of self." (Evangelium vitae, 88)

A theology of NFP must include prayerful reflection on the teachings of the Catholic Church about God's creation of men and women in His image, the meaning of human sexuality, marriage, conjugal love and responsible parenthood. The U.S. bishops emphasize the importance of this theological reflection in their document, Married Love and the Gift of Life:

"Married love differs from any other love in the world. By its nature, the love of husband and wife is so complete, so ordered to a lifetime of communion with God and each other, that it is open to creating a new human being they will love and care for together. Part of God's gift to husband and wife is this ability in and through their love to cooperate with God's creative power. Therefore, the mutual gift of fertility is an integral part of the bonding power of married intercourse. That power to create a new life with God is at the heart of what spouses share with each other." (USCCB, Married Love and the Gift of Life, 2006)

Natural Family Planning (NFP) is the general title for the scientific, natural, and moral methods of family planning that can help married couples either achieve or postpone pregnancy. Since the methods of NFP respect the love-giving and life-giving nature of the conjugal act, they support God's design for married love!

Questions and answers on NFP are available in a brochure called "Natural Family Planning." To order contact customerservice@ifcweb.com or call toll free at 866-582-0943 and ask for publication #9521.

The planning for the 2024 Padre Pio Festival / Parish Picnic is well under way. Sponsorships play an integral part in helping to defray expenses and contribute to the overall success of the weekend. But Sponsor donations don't just happen. Each year we as a Parish reach out to past Sponsors and potential new ones to participate in the program. Also the Sponsors themselves need time to plan and allocate resources for the program.

If you know of a potential Sponsor or you feel you might be interested in becoming a Sponsor, please contact us so we can give you all the necessary information and benefits of the program. Religious Education

Dear Missionary Disciples,

As the sweltering heat of the summer continues, July is racing by! This week we remember the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Jesus' grandparents, on July 26, for the Memorial of Sts. Anne and Joachim. It's a great time to remind us of the important place grandparents have in the family and what a great impact they have on the grandkids. How many times do we remember special times spent with our Grandparents, especially during vacation and holidays, and the examples they gave us as children in living out our Catholic faith? Kids watch everything, so let us live what we profess to believe so that our children and grandchildren can see in real life how to live out their faith.

Mr. Shawn Tobin

Remember to vacation with Jesus by adding the Masstimes.org app to your phone. You can always make sure to attend Mass anywhere in the world! God bless!

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

THE NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS took place from July 17-21 in Indianapolis, Indiana. It is the first Eucharist Congress in 83 years! Tens of thousands of people took part in this profound personal revival so they can be sent out to share Christ's love with a world that so desperately needs it. Even though we all could not be there, God desires that all of will be nourished by Him in the Eucharist and accept our Missionary Call to spread the Gospel through deed and word. How is God calling you to change the world today by spreading his call to love during this upcoming year of mission of the Eucharistic Revival?

CCD: Registration for Traditional Fall CCD started July 8th. Sign up in now for discounts! If you have not previously been enrolled, please reach out ASAP for assistance.

RCIA/OCIA: Please contact me if you are interested in exploring the Catholic faith or completing your Sacraments! Stories of Faith coming Sunday, July 28th.

All families new to the parish, please contact me to discuss your child's religious education. I may be contacted at 215-357-2130 or stobin@st-bede.org May St. John Paul II and St. Teresa of Calcutta bless and pray for you!

Join the St. Joseph Men's Faith Sharing Group!

Happy month of July, the month traditionally dedicated to the Precious Blood of Jesus. Come out and join us as we learn to grow closer to Jesus and become the unique and great men God has called us each to be! Our next meeting is Saturday, July 27th at 7 am in the Drexel Center Room A. Food for the Soul

"Just imagine what Moses had to go through, and then ask yourself: Why are we not so radically changed? We're in the presence of the same God, face to face, whose light shines so bright from the Holy Eucharist. Why are we not changed?"

Going on Vacation? Find a Mass Online!

Taking a trip this summer doesn't mean that you have to take a vacation from worship. Whether you are down the shore or anywhere around the world, making Sunday Mass a part of your vacation planning is as easy as your computer or phone.

Operated with the cooperation of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and with the encouragement of the Vatican, www.masstimes.org will help you to find Catholic churches and Mass schedules by city, state, zip code or country. You can download Masstimes from your app store on your phone, or get information by calling 1-858-207-6277 and providing either the zip code or phone number of the desired U.S. or international location.

Quotable...

"Unfurl the sails, and let God steer us where He will."

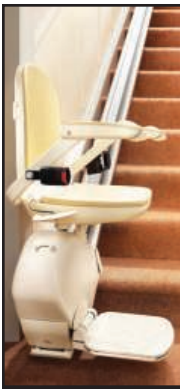

-St. Bede the Venerable
