“There is no one who performs a mighty deed in My name who can at the same time speak ill of Me.” Mark 9: 39

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR PASTOR

My dear parishioners,

This weekend we begin one of the most holy and sacred times in the parish calendar. It's our turn as a parish to celebrate three days, or approximately Forty Hours when Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament is exposed on the main altar of our church in a special container called the Monstrance. The Monstrance allows us to see the Consecrated Host, which is the Body and Blood of Jesus, made present for us at the 12:30pm Mass, which begins the Forty Hours Devotion.

In other words except for times when Mass is celebrated on the altar, the Monstrance will be there over these next three days for visitors and adorers to spend time with Jesus. It is a moment when we look at and adore the Eucharist that we receive so often and unfortunately, too often, just take for granted.

So I invite you, no I encourage you, to make an appointment with the Divine Physician for an hour, half hour, or even just 15 minutes. Often times people ask, “So what should I do, or what can I do during that time? Can you sit? Must you kneel? Is it okay that one person is reading while another seems to be writing something in a notebook?”

Here are some acceptable options you can take in the Presence of Jesus, your Beloved Savior, who will just be so happy to see you. There are no specific rules, just be there. Reflect on His cross and adore Him for all He has done for you and humanity.

Many Catholics use this time in Eucharistic Adoration for praying the rosary. The rosary offers a helpful way to spend a large chunk of time in praying while meditating on the various mysteries of the rosary. Did you forget them? Use your cell phone – it's alright!

For many other Catholics who go to Adoration, writing in a small notebook allows their inner thoughts to come forward. It can help them process their true feelings about a certain matter while in the Presence of Our Savior. It may be fear, anger, confusion, joy, thanksgiving. Different things for different people. Jesus is fine with whatever you bring Him.

Reading is another wonderful activity to do during Eucharistic Adoration. There is sacred scripture reading, which is always time well spent. Or any other devotional or religious book.

The truth is, we live in difficult times. Disease, war in the Middle East, political turmoil and public unrest seem to mar our country. Divisions among political groups are raising tensions and seem like the world is spinning out of control. But as Catholics, we have a hope greater than all these things. And our hope is Jesus, who calls us to spread the Good News of His ultimate victory through the resurrection. This personal journey of impacting the world should begin by recommitting to Eucharistic Adoration.

Forty Hours is the perfect “new beginning.”

May God bless you.

Monsignor Marine

Scripture Readings for Next Sunday

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 6, 2024

Genesis 2: 18-24

Psalms 128: 1-6

Hebrews 2: 9-11

Mark 10: 2-16 or 10: 2-12

The scripture passages from Genesis and the Gospel of Mark reveal images of faithful love between spouses. The Gospel goes farther, including children in the equation. Listening to these readings, let us be mindful of those whose marriages are a source of anguish, as well as families whose children are not cared for and respected as they deserve. Let us open ourselves to the power of God's living word to transform us all into faithful witnesses to God's great works in all our human relationships

General Notes Regarding the Closing Procession:

The leaders of Parish Organizations have received the memo from Monsignor Marine requesting that participants/members of their respective group sit together in church and participate in the closing procession with the Most Blessed Sacrament on Tuesday evening, Oct. 1. If the group has a banner, they are encouraged to carry it.

Each group will have an assigned section in the church, where the participants are asked to be seated prior to the service. Please look for your leader near your section, and be seated in church by 6:50pm.

Any child who received First Holy Communion or Confirmation last year are invited to walk in their sacramental outfits as a group. Please look for your SKD teacher or Mr. Tobin for CCD students.

We thank you in advance for your cooperation and assistance. At the same time, please encourage your group to make a Holy Hour together at some point during the Forty Hours. All of these are wonderful ways for our parish to witness to our Holy Catholic faith as well as our great love for Our Blessed Lord in the Most Holy Eucharist.

Principal's Corner

The presence of Autumn gives us hope! As the season quickly changes, we are reminded that our students are in the process of growing and changing! Our classrooms provide the perfect example of this growth. Our students are encouraged, supported, and challenged each day to achieve all that they can. During this past month our students focused on the following scripture passage: When Jesus spoke again to the people, he said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

Ms. Laura Clark

We remind our students that Being the LIGHT is being a friend, through good times and bad. It is when you take an interest in other people and make them feel welcome. You share your belongings, your time, and yourself. Our goal is to help our students implement these actions daily in order to be the best person that they can be every day. Please continue to pray for our school as we help our children grow in their own faith and respond to God's call to enter into a loving relationship with Him and with the Church. Please be assured of our daily prayers for you! God bless us all!

Religious Education

This Sunday would have been the Feast of the Archangels, honoring St. Michael, St. Gabriel and St. Raphael. But since it is Sunday, we celebrate the Sunday Mass and the great gift Jesus gave us in his Resurrection. Not only did Christ die and resurrect for us, he gave himself in the Eucharist to sustain us in this world and prepare us for heaven. This is the great treasure we have in the Holy Mass and in the sweet reception of Jesus in the Eucharist. So, this Sunday, consider thanking God for what he did on the Cross for you and resurrecting from the dead. Also consider, thanking the Archangels and your own Guardian Angel for all the unseen help they have brought you during your life. Holy Archangels, protect us and bring peace to our whole world!

Epic: The Early Church

The Early Church is a 10-session program that begins November 19th. The course presents in exciting and dramatic detail the first 500 years of the Church through the lives and events of the saints, philosophers, theologians, martyrs, and ruthless emperors. Discover the extraordinary story of the Church's beginnings—a time of courageous saints, brilliant philosophers, eloquent theologians, ruthless emperors, and heroic martyrs. St. John Paul II said, "Christ is the foundation and center of history; he is its meaning and ultimate goal." Epic: The Early Church encourages you to grow closer to Christ through a deeper understanding of his Church. Here you will get to know the people and events that shaped its first five hundred years. You will see how the Church Fathers boldly confronted early challenges to the Faith—challenges similar to the ones we face today. You will learn the stories behind the first ecumenical councils and the Roman persecutions and meet many of the men and women who gave their lives to defend the Faith. The heroic stories of the early leaders and martyrs of the Church will strengthen and affirm your own walk of faith.

The Student Workbook includes:

- ◆ A dynamic, engaging full-color layout featuring classic art, maps, and charts
- ◆ An overview of each session
- ◆ Quick quizzes to help remember the most essential points
- ◆ Talk notes to guide participants through the video presentation
- ◆ Group discussion questions
- ◆ Scripture and Catechism of the Catholic Church references

Registration is $42 per participant, which covers a workbook, access to the online course videos and workbook and 10 lively in-person sessions with snacks and beverages. The course will meet in the Drexel Center, Room B on Tuesday mornings from 9:45 to 11:15 AM and Tuesday evenings from 7 to 8:30 PM. Participants can alternate between the two times as needed since both sessions will be the same each week. Course Dates: Nov 19; Dec 3, 10; 2025: Jan 7, 14, 21, 28; Feb 4, 11, 18.

If you are interested in registering for this course, use this QR Code:
